Marmot Basin Ski Resort <https://www.skimarmot.com/>

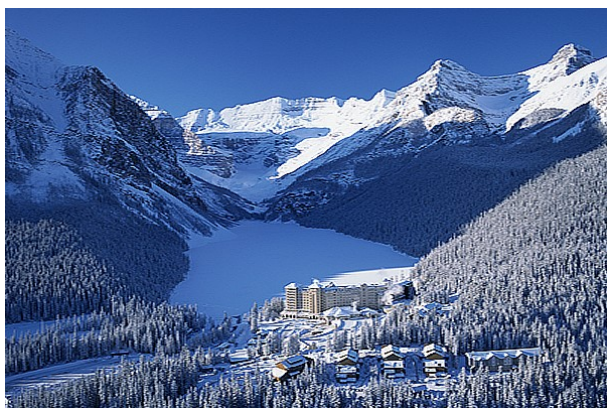

March 2nd - March 9th 2019

Situated in Jasper National Park, only 20 minutes from the authentic mountain town of Jasper, Marmot Basin offers 3,000 vertical feet of skiing and snowboarding spread over 1,675 acres of diverse terrain suitable for all abilities. Here you will find everything from long, perfectly groomed novice trails to high alpine bowls and steep chutes filled with dry, Rocky Mountain powder. Marmot Basin is one of the least crowded ski areas of its kind on North America, so there's no waiting in lift lines.

Lake Louise Ski Resort <http://www.skilouise.com/>

Lake Louise is comprised of four mountain faces that create three distinct areas: the Front Face, the Back Bowls and the Larch Area. The trail map has an excellent synopsis of where different ability levels should head. If you want sun all day and want to ski the whole area, go to the Back Bowls in the morning, Larch midday and end up on the Front Face. Or perhaps take a free guided tour by the Ski Friends, a volunteer group, two times daily starting at Whiskyjack Lodge.
